Take her cheek again, when her lover, once colder was Chorus discover, Turn her Eyes so sweetly speaking, When time long expiation seeking, seeking Oh! we saw her Heart was breaking, like a Rose we saw her suffer, from a thorn we brought her with us. Now our Evening pastimes flying, We in Heart felt sorrow Dying, Seek this Willow softly sighing,

Oh my little darling

O my little fourpence O my little fourpence

I love my little fourpence as my life

I'll spend a penny I'll lend a penny

I'll carry two pence home to my wife

O my little two pence O my little two pence

I love my two pence as my life

I'll spend a penny I'll lend a penny

I'll carry nothing home to my wife -

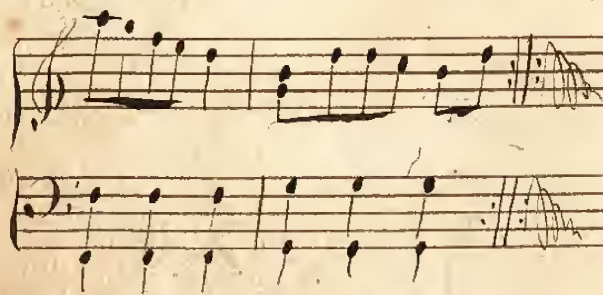

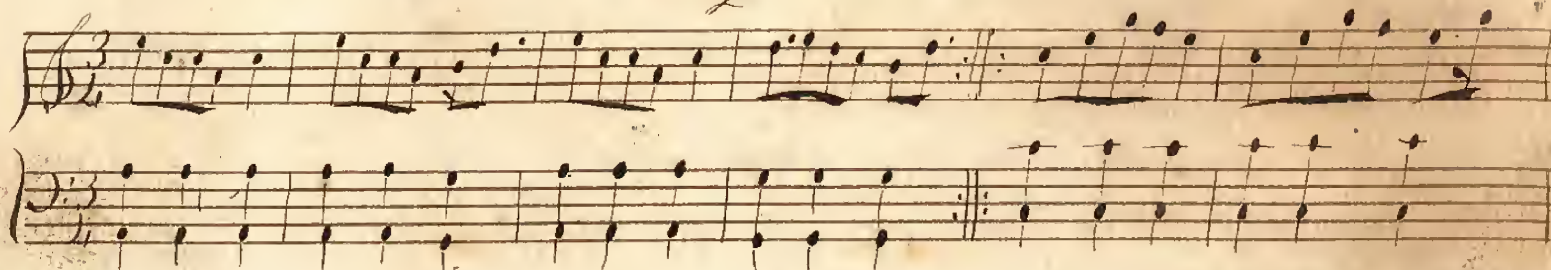

O my little nothing O my little nothing

I love my nothing as my life

I'll spend nothing I'll lend nothing

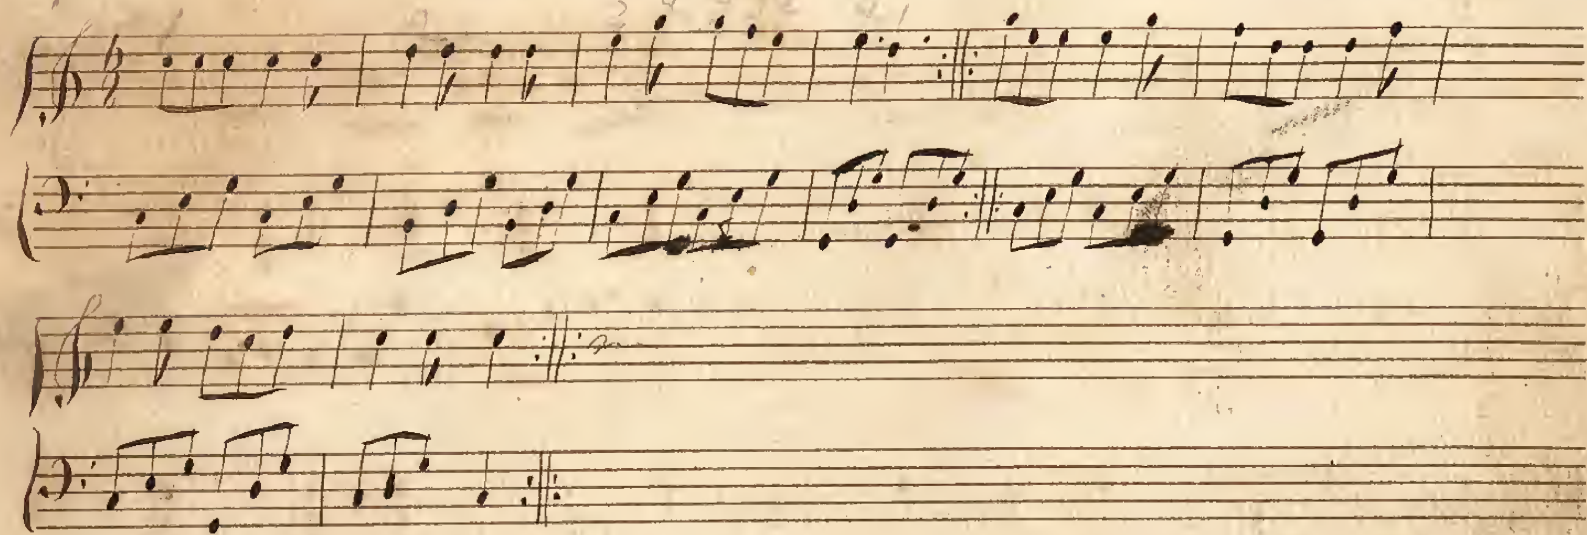

I'll carry nothing home to my wife.
